

"All Creatures of Our God and King"

Francis of Assisi wrote this hymn in seclusion during the hot summer of 1225. It is a meditation on Psalm 145 and Psalm 148. Francis is known for his love of nature. He saw the hand of God in all creation. The son of a wealthy merchant, he led a carefree, adventurous youth. He eventually rejected his money and happy-go-lucky lifestyle and embraced a life of poverty and service to God and humanity. The anonymous tune from 17th century Germany combines perfectly with the text, calling all living things and the inanimate world to rejoice in the worship of its Creator.

RICH MAN ~ POOR MAN

Francis of Assisi (1182-1226) is one of the most respected religious figures in history. He was born in Assisi, Italy. His father was a successful cloth merchant. Francis grew up leading a life of wealth and luxury. At age 19, the high-spirited Francis decided to become a soldier and go to war. He was soon captured and was held as a prisoner in a dungeon for a year. After enduring imprisonment and a serious illness, Francis rejected his worldly life. Over the angry protest of his father, Francis gave all his money to the church and decided to live a life of poverty. Although he was poor in material possessions, he was rich in joy! He loved God and all God's creation.

Francis was known for his love of nature and animals. He saw all creation as a gift and blessing from God. During the hot summer of 1225, Francis wrote a song titled "Canticle of the Sun." This song was translated and became "All Creatures of Our God and King."

In his song, Francis calls on all creation to praise God. All creatures, the sun, moon, wind, clouds, water, fire, and God's followers are included in the call to praise. The last stanza is a grand doxology in which all creation and the people of God join in praising the Trinity: Our Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer.

All Creatures of Our God and King

Written by Francis of Assisi, 1225

All creatures of our God and King, Lift up your voice and with us sing:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou burning sun with golden beam, thou silver moon with softer gleam!

*O praise Him, O praise Him!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!*

Thou rushing wind that art so strong, Ye clouds that sail in heaven along,
O praise Him! Alleluia!

Thou rising morn, in praise rejoice, Ye lights of evening, find a voice!

*O praise Him, O praise Him!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!*

Thou flowing water, pure and clear, Make music for thy Lord to hear,
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou fire so masterful and bright, Thou givest man both warmth and light!

*O praise Him, O praise Him!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!*

And thou, most kind and gentle death, Waiting to hush our latest breath,
O praise Him! Alleluia!

Thou leadest home the child of God, And Christ our Lord the way hath trod.

*O praise Him, O praise Him!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!*

Let all things their Creator bless, And worship Him in humbleness,
O praise Him! Alleluia!

Praise, praise the Father, praise the Son, And praise the Spirit, Three in One!

*O praise Him, O praise Him!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!*
